Lake Lavon was on fire today. Not the fishing. By on fire, I mean it was a scorching hot July day. The fishing was tough, but one angler put it all together to take the win.

1st - Derick Maschmeier threw a 2.5 squarebill and pitched a Z-hog Jr. to put a really impressive bag together. He brought the only limit to the scales and it weighed a whopping 17.56. His bag was anchored by beautiful 8.06 lbs. largemouth. Good job Derick!

2nd - Coy Frazier was on his way to a really nice bag also, but was two fish shy of a limit. With 3 fish he still amassed a sack weighing 13.58. A couple more fish and he would have been right there with Derick. Coy caught his fish on a shakey head with redbug colored worm.

3rd - David Porter also brought 3 fish in to the scales. David's 3 fish went 6.15 lbs. David was one of just 3 people to bring more than 2 fish to the scales today, joining Coy and Derick. David's fish were caught on a dropshot.

4th - Dan Phifer followed closely behind David with 2 fish for 6.11 lbs. Dan's fish were caught on a shakey head.

5th - Jason Geesey rounds out the top 5 with 2 for 5.51lbs. Jason caught his on a crankbait.

6th - Mark Calhoun finished in 6th with 4.52.

Big Bass - Derick Maschmeier's sweeps all top prizes with his 8.06 lbs. bass.

Heavy Boat - Derick takes this also.
