For 4 months in a row, we have had some pretty tough tournaments. The last 3 tournaments yielded just 2 limits at each event. And Rayburn, before them, wasn't much better. Right now, we are all thinking that fall can't get here soon enough. Didn't stop Derick Maschmeier though.

1st - Derick caught 1 of the limits this weekend and they were enough to seal his first victory of the year. Keepers didn't sound like they were an issue for Derick. I believe he had more than his share. His 5 weighed 10.41 lbs. Derick caught them flipping a jig and swimming a jig.

2nd - Russell Roland also caught his fish on a jig. He fished docks to catch 3 good ones. His 3 went 9.12 lbs. He didn't get a chance to practice on Saturday and still finished 2nd.

3rd - Chad Petrie was close to a limit with his bag of 4 fish. Chad's fish weighed 8.47 lbs. Chad caught all his fish on a shakey head around shallow docks.

4th - Mike Rice also had 4 fish on a tough day. Mike's 4 went 8.14 lbs. Mike caught his fish on Texas rig, shakey head, and football head off of main lake points mostly.

5th - Mike Casanova almost matched Mike Rice's bag exactly, with his 4 for 8.12 lbs. Mike caught his on Shakey heads around docks.

6th - Jon Harshbarger continues his run. He has finished 7 of the 9 tournaments in one of the top 6 places. Jon had 4 for 7.99 lbs. He caught each of his 5 keepers on a different bait, I believe.

Big Bass - Mike Fenton 4.65 lbs.

Heavy Boat - Jon Harshbarger / Chad Petrie 16.46 lbs.
